Substance Abuse in the Legal Profession

prevention, detection & treatment

Presenter: C. Edward Dilkes, Attorney and Past President of The Other Bar
In this hour-long program, Mr. Dilkes explains the chemistry of addiction and alcoholism and their behavioral and health impacts. He considers the personality traits of attorneys and the qualities of the legal profession that combine to make lawyers particularly susceptible to addiction and difficult to treat. The presentation includes a case study of an addict attorney, a self-diagnosis exercise, and a review of systemic and individual solutions.
